Crisis Control Ministry Holiday Honor Card Sales to Benefit Local Community

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (October 22, 2019) – Crisis Control Ministry is hosting their 23rd annual Holiday Honor Card fundraiser from November 1st – December 20th, 2019. All of the proceeds from the cards support the work of Crisis Control Ministry, making sure our neighbors in crisis have access to food, warm housing, and medicine.

“People love our holiday cards because they’re a meaningful alternative gift that honors the recipient and also benefits people in Forsyth County experiencing crisis,” said Margaret Elliott, Executive Director of Crisis Control Ministry.

For a minimum donation of $5 per card, Crisis Control Holiday Honor Cards can be mailed by the purchaser themselves, or be signed and mailed by Crisis Control volunteers. Additional donations are welcomed. Donations are tax deductible. Two design options are available – one by graphic artist Beth Jones and one by well-known local artist William Mangum. For 32 years, Mangum’s Honor Card program has raised over $6 million for various organizations that assist individuals and families across the state struggling with poverty, hunger, and homelessness.
